The news Decimitar PUBLISHED BY THE MEMPHIS NEWS SCIMITAR COMPANY

Entered as Second-Class Matter at the Postoffice at Memphis, Tenn., Under the Act of March 3, 1879.

DAILY EXCEPT SUNDAY

MEMBER OF THE ASSOCIATED PRESS. tar, and also the local news published latticles of humanity. Wednesday the SUBSCRIPTION RATES by earler. 15c per week. By mail postate paid 1 month. 50c: 2 months. $1.00. 2 months. $1.50; 6 months. $2.50; 12 months. $5.00.

Vale Carranza.

a pure Castillan, and belonged to a e which, whatever its other defects. is heroically brave and fearless Car ranga's end was eminently Mexicano tleman, more at home in the drawing room and the accessories of civilization,

Villa, upon whose head a price o $100,000 is set, can hide in the underbrush like a rabbit and defy pursuit He, too, will likely be taken. The reward is most alluring. Some of his man. Bonilla will have all he can do to save his own skin, and running for president without Carranza's assist ance will be too perllous. Carranze lived and ruled by the sword and the rifle, and by these instruments he has avenue, have been notified that with Poor old Mexico! Another bloods chapter in her history has been written, but the book is by no means com-Other murders and assussing tions must follow in a country where murder and assassination are the high accomplishments of civilization. norant and semicivilized people, are a sea-sheep without a shepherd, a mob an Ishmaelite, ready to strike every other man within reach. There is going to be more struggle and conflict. The heads of the forces in the various secoding states will each strive to become the head of the ngdie by each other's hand. It is an a part. It will require vigilance and offort to keep bandit horden out of this country. They are starving, and there the instinct of wild animals and must Rio Grande will run blood. They will be met by rifles and machine guns.

In Mexico, and the lives of these will be imperiled, but this number, with will take care of themselves if they can get together and make common The outlook is by no means

Meantime Pancho Villa is demanding half a million dollars from the American mining interests, and he is claimtion of his country. He is a bandit, and unthinkable as president of Mexico and, what makes it worse, he is about as good as any of the rest of the loudmouthed patriots. Time will unravel the tangle that has been going from bad to worse for five years. The commander of the American forces along the border is likely to have a busy and difficult time for a season. He will have to deal with one gang of bandits after another, and there he only one way to deal with The only good bandit is the dead bandit

Intervention is an appalling task. Yet intervention may come. It may be forced upon us. We cannot six idly by and see American lives and interests destroyed. The border states, especially contiguous to the line, are peopled by Mexigans who claim to be and who exercise the right of American citizens. and these secretly sympathize with depended upon to do their worst in case of trouble. Uncle Sam has an ugly mess at his back door, and what he is going to do with it is a question that may puzzle the wisest for a long time art of the public but mone will gath the limitest reward in the power of the project to begin or gifts because the project to begin or gifts because the man who produces vegetables and the one who consumes them, as influence that depresses the price the produce receives for his product and inflates the price the consumer pays for it. This influence is called the middleman, because he is against both ends for the price the producer that it is to his influence in called the middleman pays, and ethic produce the producer that it is to his influence in the middleman pays, and ethic produce the producer that it is to his interest not to sell to the consumer, who would pay him more for his produce the producer that it is to his interest not to sell to the consumer, who would pay him more for his produce the producer that it is to his interest not to sell to the consumer whose birthdate it is avoid to persuade the producer that it is to his interest not to sell to the consumer who would pay him more for his produce the middleman pays and ethic purchase it for less than the middleman pays and ethic purchase it for less that his producer that it is to his interest not to sell to the consumer whose birthdate it is avoid to persuade the producer that it is to his interest not to sell to the consumer whose birthdate it is avoid to persuade the producer that it is to his interest not to sell to the consumer whose birthdate it is avoid to persuade the producer that it is to his interest not to sell to the consumer whose birthdate is a would be produced the producer that it is to his interest not to sell to the consumer. When the producer that it is to his careful to avoid we demand the producer of the producer that it is to his consumer and the producer that it is to his interest not to sell to the consumer. When the producer that it is to his interest not to sell to the consumer. When the producer that it is to his interest not to sell the middl lish a curb market shows how firmity dleman. The disappointment of several hundred women who went to the place where the market was advertised to b located, shows how exchestly the people desire to deal with the producer him-

Mr. Tull is working in the interest of the producer and the consumer. The city is behind the movement in the interest of economy. Those who have been guilty of defeating the effort are profiteers of the rankest sort. They deserve no consideration. They add only to the price of the article for sale, and take the profits for themselves without rendering any worth while service Their defiance should make the city more determined to annihilate them completely.

A Poor Alibi.

Gen. Herrers, who had charge of a party of soidiers marding Presiden Carranga, sends out the curious story that the unfortunate man committed sulcide. As his body showed the marks of six rifle bullets, this stupendous story will not go far, if it depends on those a ha believe it. It is worse than absord. ## in impudent and insulting. The world will always believe the first story sent out-that he was murdered while he slept in a supposedly guarded cabin and that his guards were his assassins. Herrera must get some other alibi. This one is too flimsy and transparent.

There could be no nobler institution han the Cripple Children's Hospita school, an institution supported and dedication services marked the close of derful amount of good. Its service is NOTICE TO SUBSCRIBERS.

If you have trouble about getting your paper, call Main 494 and the matter will be given immediate attention. After are on the waiting list. There should be no such thing as a waiting list of pacity of the hospital should be doubled and we are sure the people will be glad to provide the means of making it such an institution needs will be with held from it.

A Wise Decision.

Commissioner Allen's announcement made Tuesday afternoon in The News Scimitar, that there would be a distinct medification of his rule for the rollection of garbage, was exceedingly slightest disposition manifested to cooperate with him Because a thing is dene differently in the North or East of garbage is not classed as one of the garbage wagons to make the rounds regularly and at frequent intervals. I will be improved. There is no object ion to the application of business methods in emptying a garbage can.

Here Is a Case.

The tenants in two of the larges Poplar avenue and one on Madisol increased rent will go into effect, and The News Scimitar has been requested ants or from the agents of the apart nents. The real estate profiteer is the troubles, nor to undertake exhaustive research or any subject. Write your question plainty and briefly. Give full name and nidress and inclose 2 cents in stamps for return postage. All replies are sent direct to the inquirer.)

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS

Ain't It a Grand and Glorious Feelin'?-By Briggs Copyright 1920 by the Tribune Association (New York Pribune

BEDTIME STORY

UNCLE WIGGILY AND JACKO'S COCONUT.

case enough, said Uncle Wiggily.

(Any reader can get the answer to any question by writing The Naws Scimitar Information bursau. Prederly, Handley director. Washington, D. C. Handley, director. Washington, D. C. Hon, "The bureau cannot give advice on legan, medical and financial matters, it does not attempt to settle domestic troubles, nor to undertake exhaustive research no any subject. Write your question plainly and briefly. Give full interpolation of the samps for return postage. All replies are sent direct to the inquirer.

HOROSCOPE

THURSDAY, MAY 27, 1820.

Copyright, 1920, by the McCiure News, pulser Syndicate.)

Copyright, 1920, by the McCiure News, pulser Syndicate.

Kindly stars dominate this day, according to astrology. The sun, Mercelly and Justice are all in benefic as a cording to astrology. The sun, Mercelly and Justice are all in benefic as a cording to astrology. The sun, Mercelly and Justice are all in benefic as a cording to astrology. The sun, Mercelly and Justice are all in benefic as a cording to astrology. The sun, Mercelly and Justice are all in benefic as a cording to astrology. The sun, Mercelly and Justice are all in benefic as a cording to astrology. The sun, Mercelly and Justice are all in benefic as a cording to astrology. The sun, Mercelly and Justice are all in benefic as a cording to astrology. The sun, Mercelly and Justice are all in benefic as a cording to astrology. The sun may be a cording to astrology. The sun mercelly and the first the same time that the substitute of the sunder of the sund

UNCLE WIGGLY AND JACKO'S COCONUT.

A—Lobsters, crabs, cysters and other moliuses live 2D years or longer.

——What do the expressions sterling as deady bills commercial 60-day bills or mercial flower by being as the commercial flower by being as I THANK you.

AND I'M pleased to meet you. AND IF I can help you. BY PRINTING your letter. WHY, I'M glad to do It. BECAUSE, ANYWAY, I'VE GOT to fill this space. AND I'TS six years now. SINCE I started this column-AND LOTS of times. IT'S PRETTY tough. JUST TO think of semething. TO WRITE about. AND A letter like yours.

HELPS TO fill the space. AND ALL I must do. is JUST run along. WRITING LINES like this. AND WITH the three little stars.

THAT GO in between, EACH LINE I write. MAKES A couple of lines. AND GETS me two lines closer. TO THE end of the column. AND EVERY man WHO WRITES a column. WILL ALWAYS tell you. THAT THESE fast lines. ARE THE very best things. HE HAS ever written.

BUT I'VE transgroused. AND WANDERED AWAY. BECAUSE I wanted to ask. IF I'TS really true THAT YOU know a girl.

AND THINKS I'm levely. OR IF you wrote it. BECAUSE YOU know, I AM getting old. AND MAYBE figured. THAT I'D print the letter. JUST FOR that one line. BUT THAT'S no matter. AND I love her much. AND SHE says she loves me. LIKE SHE loves her father.

Fashion's Forecast By Annabel Worthington.

Poses as Cousin of Boy; Feet Now Chilly

BY MRS. ELIZABETH THOMPSON.

Dear Mrs. Thompson-There was a boy in town not long ago whom I was crazy to meet. I knew him, but he did not know me. I found out, through a mutual friend, that he wanted to meet a distant cousin of his that he had never seen, but had heard of. I introduced myself to him one night at a dance as the

We have been going together for a long while, myself under the assumed name of his cousin. Now I am told that the real cousin is coming back to town. What shally I do? I am beginning to get cold feet.

As no harm has come of the fun you have had, I see no reason for you to set "cold feet." Simply tell the man the truth about it, and when the real cousin comes be sure and meet her and make a satisfactory explanation to her, and no doubt she will enter into it and enjoy it quite as much as you have and the boy, but do not take too much for granted.

Dear Mrs. Thompson—I am a girl of 8 and am desperately in love with a boy 20 years old. He wants me to marry him, but my parents object. Tiey like the boy, but do not want me to marry.

As no harm has come of the fun you have had, I see no reason for you to get "coid feet." Simply tell the man the truth about it, and when the real cousin comes be sure and meet her and make a satisfactory explanation to her, and no doubt she will enter into it and enjoy it quite as much as you have and you may become fast friends.

Dear Mrs. Thompson—I am a girl of 21 and have failed in love with my second cousin. Not that I intended to at all, but because I could not help it. We live a great distance apart and I only see him once a year. When he came to see me in the sping I knew that loved him. He has told me ever since he was 19 that he loved me and wished me to become his wife in the future. He is 23. Can it be possible that I love him, or is it a streak of puppy love with me? I have always regarded him as cousin and nothing more. Do you think it would be ainful if we were to marry? I know this boy loves me. Tell me what to do.

I cannot advise you to marry your second cousin, aithough I have known it to be done quite often, but there is always the feeling of anxiety with such a match that would not be pleasant. I cannot call your feeling for him. "puppy love," for that comes with people much younger than you. I will say, however, that if you were in love with him you would know it and would not have to ask some one to tell you. If cousins persist in marrying they should be prepared to meet the consequences with-out a complaint.

Dear Mrs. Thompson—I am a girl of 18 and am despectately. He will tell you the feel in love with any only over you you was a girl of 18 and am despectately in love with a proper for a boy to to meet the proper for a boy to give her stepmother a present? How long would it be proper for a boy to give her atepmother a present? How long would it be proper for a boy to live you at all right for the girl to ask him to give her atepmother a present? How long would it be proper for a boy to live you in the proper for a boy to live you in the proper for a boy to live you and the proper for ask some one to tell you. If cousins persist in marrying they should be prepared to meet the consequences without a complaint.

Dear Mrs. Thompson—I am a girl of 19 and am in love with a young man in the office. He has money and the girls think for that reason he would only care for a working girl think he would care for a working girl BROWN EYES.

When a person is really in love they forget everything except that they are in love. If this man loved you talthough you have not said so he would certainly know that you were a business woman.

Working Girls Have Man Market Cornered

BY DOROTHY DIX. The World's Highest Paid Woman Writer. "We business girls have one consolation, even if we do have to earn our own bread and butter and jam," said a young woman the other day, "and that is that we have practically cornered the matrimonial market, and get the first option on most of the good things in the marrying line.

"And let me tell you that is no small thing in these days when men are scarce, and shy at the altar anyway, and when husbands have passed into the luxury class.

"You may suppose that the rich gir Owho has nothing to do but doil herself up, and look pretty, and sit on the family pedestal would have the best chance to marry. Far from it. Cinderella, the typewriter queen, has got the fairy princess left at the Old Maids home when it comes to husband suaring. And not only can the working girl marry oftener and quicker than the rich girl she can marry better.

"As a matter of fact no other girl has such a poor chance of making a really good match as the wealthy society girl. She is handicapped by her money for men of honor, and independence and pride fight shy of her because, for nother thing, they can not bear to put themselves into the position of a hanger on and pensioner of their wives.

"Then the kind of men who are going to be the famous professional men and the hig business men of 20 years hence are not hanging around drawing rooms, and yachting and polo-ing just now. They are grubbing away in offices, and bands have passed into the luxury class.

(Copyright, 1970, by the Wheeler Syn-dicate, Inc.)

For the Table

Salad Dressing—(Made to keep indefinitely)—One dozen eggs, 12 tablespoons vinegar, 12 tablespoons cold water, one tenspoon constarch, one cup olive oil, two large tenspoons salt, one tenspoon dry mustard, one-fourth tenspoon cavenne papper. Beat eggs very light, add vinegar and water with corristarch Mix well and cook in double botter until thickened, stirring constantly. When removed from heat, beat until cooled and when entirely cooled add oil and salt, pepper and mustard. This makes a quart and a half and kept in a cool olace will last for weeks, as it can be used with cream or without, when ready to use, as you like. A very excellent decising for all salads.

Bagara Candles—One small banans.

Banana Candles - One small banana Barara Candes — One small binana one-half a lemon, two slices of pincanole, two almonds. Skin and dip the hanana in lemon juice. This prevents the fruit from discoloring. Enlarge the hole in the center of the pincapple a very little and insert half of the small banana so that it will stand upright. Cut the fop like the top of the candle and insert an almond to represent the flame. Serve cold with boiled drossing.

BRINGING UP FATHER -By George McManus

